Exclusively available for weddings, nestled within the grounds is a Secret Garden. Established in 1904, the garden has matured into a truly magical setting that provides the perfect backdrop for photos and intimate receptions for up to 100 guests.

INDOOR SPACES

Inside we have several rooms, each packed full of charm and character which can be used for ceremonies and receptions from 20 up to 100 guests, such as Herringham Hall, Tuke Common Room and Knapp Gallery.

CIVIL CEREMONIES

Regent's University London is licensed for marriage ceremonies, civil partnerships and renewals through Westminster Council.

We have a Grade II listed room with walnut panels to accommodate 100 guests or Herringham Hall with vaulted ceilings, to accommodate up to 150 guests for a ceremony.

Regent's University London is almost unique in London, in as much, as there is space outside to hold your wedding ceremony. Whether using the Secret Garden or the York Lawns, Westminster will hold ceremonies outside subject to a couple of conditions.
